

ANGEL OF VICTORY FOR CANADIAN RAILWAY HEROES

Memorial Tablet for Railway Heroes

"To those who will fall I say, 'You will not die, but step into immortality; your names will be revered forever and ever by your grateful country, and God will take you unto Himself.'"

Thus wrote General Sir Arthur Currie in the special order issued to the Canadian troops on March 27, 1918. The pledge thus given is being faithfully fulfilled in relation to 11,062 employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company by the placing of bronze memorial tablets at over a score of its principal offices and stations in Canada, and also in London, Liverpool and the Orient.

The tablet designed by Archibald Pearce, of the Chief Engineer's Department, depicts an advancing army of infantry, cavalry, artillery, supplies, munitions, tanks and railway transport flanked on either side by a warship and a Canadian Pacific liner with aeroplanes flying overhead. A scroll bears the names of the chief bat-ties in which Canadian Pacific men fell and this inscription: "This tablet commemorates those in the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company who at the call of King and Country left all that was dear to them, endured hardship, faced danger and finally passed out of sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom. Let those who come after see to it that their names be not forgotten."

Furthermore, an imposing bronze statue has been designed by Conrad Lion MacCarthy, a well known Montreal sculptor. In majestic and impressive allegory it represents a soldier borne Heavenward by a winged Angel of Victory. The figures are of heroic proportion, over seven feet high, supported upon a marble pedestal. Replicas of this statue will be erected in the railway stations at Montreal and Winnipeg.

Dustin Farnum Plays in Drama with Punch at the Eagle Friday

There is a crashing punch in "Big Happiness," the Robertson-Cole special, starring Dustin Farnum, which will open at the Eagle Theatre Friday and Saturday and Central Theatre Sunday and Monday. The characterization of twin brothers, the role played by Mr. Farnum, gives this sterling actor an excellent opportunity to appear at his best.

The fact that Mr. Farnum will not under any circumstances, stir his work to gain time, plus his penchant for exactitude of detail, has done much to make "Big Happiness" the master photo play that it is. There is not an "extra" in the picture. Mr. Farnum sticking to his theory that talented players are necessary to produce realistic "atmosphere."

Old friends are recognized in the cast which includes Kathryn Adams, who plays opposite Mr. Farnum, Fred Malatesta, prominent "heavy" of a score of famous pictures; Aggie Heron, Violet Schram, William Brown and Joseph J. Dowling.

Republican Rally

Held at the Grand Theater Last Night

Ralph Cameron, Republican nominee for the United States senate, addressed a large audience at the Grand theatre last night, outlining a program which he pledged himself to follow.

Edward J. Flannigan received a cordial reception when he appeared here in his home town as Republican nominee for judge of the state supreme court. He asked that his candidacy be considered on a basis of merit alone.

Others on the program with the Cameron party included Jos. E. Morrison, former United States district attorney; James R. Dunseath, Republican nominee for congress; J. C. Reed, nominee for corporation commissioner and Chas. W. Fairchild, nominee for state auditor. The meeting was presided over by Chairman A. H. Gardner.

"Love's Madness" With Louise Glaum At Central Friday

The announcement that Louise Glaum is to appear on a local screen is always a subject of great interest. And in securing Miss Glaum's newest silent drama the Central theatre expects an unusual popular response inasmuch as "Love Madness." This star's vehicle which opens Friday is said to afford her a superb opportunity for her art.

"Love Madness" from the pen of the prolific C. Gardner Sullivan who was the creator of Miss Glaum's earlier successes, "Sahara" and "Sex." The story is flavored with tense dramatic action, and the star proves herself again supreme mistress of emotional characterization.

A supporting cast that reads like a benefit performance assists Miss Glaum in her new J. Parker Read, Jr., special. Among those most prominent in the large and well selected cast are Matt Moore, Noah Beery, Wm. Conklin and Jack Nelson and Peggy Pearce. Again the popular star will exhibit a veritable fashion show of late gown creations which in themselves are an engrossing feminine feature.
